Dear Grandmother, and S. V. M.

It is not what you might call cool as the ther. used, (when I left it on the ground in the sun) 107° and in the shade bout 92°. We were all so hot that we colldd hardly sit. But to day it is cooler.

We will be in Paris in two more days. I guess when this letter gets to you, Papa and Brother will have left.

(Please ask Link if something has come for my wheel and if so ask him to have it put on. Give my love to sane).

I hope that you and Aunt are well and happy and that snowy is alright and not to fat.

I think I will close! Love to all from ??????????.

Dear Grandmother, I am so sorry to hear of your son's death. I am so glad I did not know him better because it does not make me feel so sad now! I do not want to bring your mind back to much so I won't say much more. We got the news from a letter from Mrs. Carlisle. Mother is standing it very well.

Father got here al-right and we are all feeling fine. Brother says they had a fine voage.

I never new that I loved my country so well as I do now.

I think I will stop, 1 fr. each
With bo's of love
J. Theodore.
